INTRODUCTION

This is a doodling book focused on the elements of design.

Hey there, it's the organiser and creator of the #2021DesignRefresh, Cindy.

For week 17, I decided to make a zine which showcases some of the submitted art from the previous weeks. Drawing inspiration from it to just doodle on the next page, just to keep the creative flow going even after this is all over.

Please check out the website to see everyone's submissions, it is truly a fantastic thing:
